To Tax Working Group

A submission on Secondary Tax

As a seventy + still working Nanna I would like to think that the time has come to remove this tax, not just for the over 65s, but for all the hard working people who hold down 2 jobs or more to support their families.

As we have more jobs than the people to fill them these days it means the person doing the second job is not taking a job out of the market as it was at the time Secondary tax was imposed.

I am not working just for the money but for the fulfilment, being in the world, keeping my mind active, as I am sure is the reason most over 65s work. If we remove this tax & make it an even playing field I am sure we would encourage more to take up a second job & therefore help productivity.

I hope consideration will be given to this.

Regards

Shelley Daley
